

Opening Reception for The Family Exhibition is Friday December 6th At The Center For Fine Art Photography, From 6-9 P.M.

FORT COLLINS, CO, November 10, 2013 / Press Release

What makes a family? It's complicated, but you'll find 47 artists' versions of this varied idea in the Family exhibition. The juror, Kate Ware, is one of the most respected photography curators in the country and this exhibition is a realization of her vision of Family. There is an image of a Roller Derby woman at home with her family, images about traditional family life and not so traditional. The exhibition, right in time for the holidays, is glimpse inside the pain, joy, love, and loss that make up families of all kinds.
